Mr. Bruce Dettman
20 Dashiell Hammett #17
San Francisco, CA 94108

Dear Mr. Dettman,

I suppose that only San Francisco would have named a street after the creator of The Thin Man, one of the favorite writers of my youth, even though he had been targetted by the UnAmericans of whom one of the worst came from well south of San Francisco.

I do appreciate your letter. It and others like it mean even more to me at 81 and in impaired health.

I have been told that my NEVER AGAIN! which carries what you perceive forward will appear in September.

And to the degree possible for me I am continuing my work.

Thanks for your letter. I do appreciate it.

The list you requested is enclosed.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
